MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1767.

WARSAW, July 1.

PRINCE Radzivil has been elected Marshal of the General Confederacy of Radon, after some pretty sharp Debates, in which it is assured some Blood has been spilt.

GENOA, July 4. They write from Madrid, that a Treaty is negotiating with Russia, and another with some German Princes, for allowing a Number of their Subjects to settle with their Families in Spain, in order to cultivate a barren Tract of of Ground, called Serra Molenos. They are to be allowed the Expences of their Journey, and, on their Arrival in the Spanish Territories, are to receive the King's Pay, and be provided with Necessaries for a Year. They are also to be furnished with Materials for building, and Tools for Husbandry; but after the Expiration of the above-mentioned Term, they are to maintain themselves with the Produce or Revenue of their respective Lands, which will be granted to them as their full Property, besides an Exemption from all Taxes for Ten Years to come.

By a Vessel arrived here from Toulon, we learn, that a Frigate and a Chebec had sailed from that Port for Cadiz, but we are Strangers to the Motive. It is added, that in order to forward the Works carrying on at the said Port, the Number of Workmen had been doubled, and that Vessels laden with Timber for Ship-building, were perpetually arriving there from different Parts of Italy.

FLORENCE, July 4. There are actually 6000 Jesuits in the Ports of Orthibello, St. Stephen, and Port Real, on Account of the Republic of Genoa not having permitted them to land on their Territories.

WARSAW, July 4. The Confederated Dissidents have received from the Courts of Copenhagen, Stockholm, and Berlin, the strongest Assurances of Protection. The King of Sweden, in particular, has charged his Minister at Petersburgh, to deliver to the Deputy Pfarski, a Declaration in their Favour, which Commission he has already discharged.

LONDON.

JULY 9. A great Personage is said to have declared that he will himself lay the Ground-Work of a new Administration, which shall at least have the Merit of DURATION.

We hear that Sir William Trelawney, Member for West Looe in Cornwall, is appointed Governor of Jamaica.

JULY 16. They write from Lisbon, that Four Ringleaders in the late Insurrection at Tercera, were arrived there, in Chains, on board a Portuguese Frigate of War.

JULY 18. They write from Guernsey, that the Coast of France, between the Ran of Alderney and Cape Ushant, has been strewed with Pieces of Shipwreck, during the late hard Gales of Wind in the Channel.

We are assured that the Earl of Chatham has resigned his Place.

JULY 21. We are informed that there are Eight eminent Citizens, who have already declared to stand Candidates for the City of London at the ensuing general Election.

The Earl of Chatham is so enfeebled by his present Illness, that his Lordship has been obliged to be carried, for the Benefit of the Air, between Two Horses, on a Litter.

It is said that the Earl of Chatham will shortly set out for the South of France, for the recovery of his Health.

From Malaga they write, that some Assassins broke into the House of Mr. Tulk, an English Gentleman there, when they killed Two of his Domestics, and dangerously wounded him, but he is since recovered. Mr. Tulk, and some young Gentlemen, passing by the Host, and not paying Reverence to it, is said to have occasioned this horrid Act.

The Island of Tercera, the largest but one of the Azores, it is said, is to be ceded to Britain, in Satisfaction for the late Aids furnished to Portugal. This Island can boast of a Soil fit for the Production of Corn, Cattle, and Poultry; but its Wine is very despicable. It has a good Harbour, and lies in the Atlantic Ocean, about half Way between Europe and America.

A Patent is passing the Great Seal, appointing William Spry, Esq; Governor of the Island of Barbados.

We hear that Expresses have been sent to the Right Hon. Earl Temple, and the Right Hon. William Dowdeswell, Esq; desiring their Attendance in Town.

A Letter received at Lisbon, from the Bay of All-Saints, mentions, that Two Dutch Sloops, and a Schooner, laden with Powder and Shot, Small Arms, Ordnance Stores, &c. were boarded by a Portuguese Man of War near the Rio de la Plata, the Commander of which, finding the above Cargoes were for the Use of the Jesuits of Paraguay, had confiscated the whole, for the Use of the King of Portugal.

It is said, that the Crown made by Mr. Cox, of Shoe-Lane, Jeweller, for a Nabob in the East-Indies, and sent as a Present from the Company, by Capt. Rous, in the Britannia, was so much approved of, that the Nabob ordered a Present of Rupees to be made in return, amounting to about 75,000 l. Sterling. We hear the Crown was valued before it was sent over at 14,000 l.

We hear from Amsterdam, that they import 23,000 Lasts of Corn from the Baltic in a Week, and export 30,000 Lasts to the Mideterranean in a Month, notwithstanding which their Granaries were all full, and ready to supply the London Market, when required.

It is said that the Decree given in Scotland, in Favour of the Hamilton Family, is not final; and that an Appeal will be made next Sessions to the Right Hon. House of Peers, for a Re-hearing.

The Changes in the Administration expected for some Time past, and which were, it was generally supposed, to have been settled in the Cabinet Council at St. James's, have not yet taken Place. It has been currently reported, that a Plan, formed by their Graces Bedford and Newcastle, the Marquis of Rockingham, and the Hon. Mr. George Grenville, was Yesterday laid before a great Personage, in which, of the above Number, only the Marquis was at the Levee Yesterday; and the Duke of Newcastle came to Town about Noon.

It is said that Lord Clive, on his landing at Portsmouth, ordered Five Guineas to be given to each of the common Sailors belonging to the Britannia, which brought him home.

JULY 23. The Confederacies formed by the Malcontents seem to draw the Attention of the Senate rather more than the Affair of the Dissidents. The new Prince Primate set out the 30th ult. for Radon, whither a Body of Russian Troops has advanced, with a large Train of Artillery, in order to support the Confederates, in case of Necessity.

We are assured, that by a late Treaty between this Court and that of Versailles, a mutual Agreement hath been entered into, for the reciprocal Surrender of all Fugitives, who may fly for Shelter into either Kingdoms, for any Acts of Rebellion or Felony; in Consequence of which, we hear that a certain Nobleman's Steward, and a Banker's Clerk, of this Country, who have taken Shelter in France, after running away with considerable Sums, have been lately demanded, in conformity to the said Treaty.

We are assured that a noble Lord, much esteemed in the Literary World, lately disposed of a Work, now publishing, to Two Booksellers, One at the West-End of the Town, the other in the City, for Two Thousand Guineas.

JULY 25. We can with great Certainty assure the Public, that the new Ministry are not settled, notwithstanding what has been mentioned in the Public Papers; and to speak in the Stock-Broker's Phrase, THIS MORNING, NOTHING DONE.

Earl T—— refused to join the late intended Coalition, as being hasty, crude, indigested and impermanent.

We hear, that within these few Months, not less than Three Thousand Sheep have been carried to France.

A Morning Paper says, we hear a great Personage has expressed his Resentment, in pretty severe Terms, to a certain Nobleman, of the Inconsistency of his Conduct hitherto, which it is said, would be attended with a speedy Resignation.

We hear the late Investigation of the Douglas Cause, has already been attended with an Expence of Thirty Thousand Pounds.

A Letter from Podore Factory and Settlement, says, that One of the Moorish Caravans had discovered, a long Way Inland, a Species of white Negroes of very diminutive Stature; One of whom, of the Male Sex, they brought with them to the Fort, who did not exceed Three Feet high.

By Letters from Leghorn there is Advice, that General Paoli had strongly recommended to an Assembly of the States to copy the Example of Great-Britain, in always maintaining a formidable Naval Power, as the surest Means to preserve the Corsican Nation, and render them respected both at home and abroad.

JULY 27. The Hague Gazette, of the 21st Inst. says, that one of the Principal Affairs that Sir James Grey, Ambassador from this Court to Spain, is charged with, is to settle the Dispute relating to the Manila Ransom.

On Saturday, a Sailor, who had bought an old Sea-Chest, for Five Shillings, from a Broker in Rosemary-Lane, discovered, soon afterwards, One Hundred and Eleven Spanish Gold Pistoles, concealed in a false Lining at the Bottom.

JULY 28. Letters from Madrid, dated June 30, say, "The King has appointed a Commission to examine the Papers found in the Houses belonging to the Jesuits, in order to find out, among other Things, if those Fathers were not the principal Authors of the Insurrection of the Populace, which happened last Year. It is reported that a Treaty of Commerce is on Foot between this Court and that of Russia."

JULY 30. By a Ship which arrived in Holland the 21st Instant, and departed from Greenland the 23th of June, we learn, that 20 Dutch Ships had taken only 52 Whales, and that 92 others were then empty, with little Prospect of any Success; and that this Season has been the worst ever known.

We hear that on Sunday last Lord Clive presented to the King a Letter from the Emperor of Indostan, accompanied by several oriental Curiosities; and that his Lordship the same Day had a private Conference in the Closet with his Majesty, which lasted an Hour and a Half; after which he had a private Audience of the Queen, and presented to her Majesty some Diamonds and Pearls from the Great Mogul.

Tuesday a Master of a Ship was re-committed to the King's Bench, on Suspicion of intending to defraud the Freighters of his Ship of a large Sum of Money, by pretending the Chests, in which it was contained, were thrown overboard by Mistake, when the Ship was in great Distress. But on his Return from Guildhall, he prevailed on the Tipstaff, who had him in Custody, to go with him on board the Ship in the River to see some great Curiosities; when, locking the Officer in the Cabin, he jumped into a Boat, and made his Escape.

We are told, that a young Man from Ireland, lately invented a Machine for destroying Enemies by Land or Water, which was used at Woolwich last April, and found to answer; but has been since condemned, as being of too inhuman a Nature to be adopted in our Warlike Enterprizes; that the young Man was gratified with too small a Reward; that he thereupon retired to France, where he has received the best Encouragement, and that many of these Engines are making in that Country, under his Inspection, that will bear a Charge of Three Hundred Pounds of Gun-Powder, to be used against us upon the next Rupture.

JULY 31. By a Gentleman just come from Lisbon, we are informed, that the English Merchants there are obliged, for want of Business, to dismiss their Clerks; that they expected Money by the last Fleet from the Brazils, but have got none; that they cannot get in their Portuguese Debts; and that Ruin stares them in the Face, whether they stay or go.

Extract of a Letter from Constantinople, June 15.

"The Reis Effendi, or Minister for foreign Affairs, lately signified to the Envoy of a certain Court, that he was to inform his Master, that since the late War, the Porte had a Demand upon him for divers Sorts of Provisions, drawn from Wallachia for the Service of other Powers, and which had been carried off by the Troops of the said Court. The Envoy having been informed, from good Authority, that the Reis Effendi had addressed himself to the Minister of another Power, and demanded Payment of the said Debt, told him, that it would be to no Purpose for him to call upon his Court, inasmuch as he was persuaded, that it would never pay one Farthing of it; on which the Reis Effendi informed him, that unless the Debts were discharged, he would bring himself into Trouble. The Envoy desired him to give him this Answer in Writing, and in the same Terms, that he might endeavour to secure himself against such a Menace: but the Envoy having sollicited the Day after, of the Grand Signior, an Audience of Leave, the Reis Effendi changed his Tone, and at present shews the Envoy greater Civility than ever."

Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, June 20, 1767.

"Since my last, Four Ships from the Rio, Two from Bahia, and Four for Fernambucco, are arrived here; these last are belonging wholly to the Monopolizing Company, that has engrossed the whole Trade of that Country. The Rio Ships bring some Hides, a few Sugars, and only Forty Thousand Pounds in Specie, though Ten Times the Sum was expected. What adds to the Distress of this Place is, that none of the Portuguese will own they have received any Remittance in Specie for their own Account, but pretend it is for Account of the People in Brazil, and that their Remittance consists only in Effects, as Hides, Sugars, &c. which too they will not give in Payment, but at Prices that leave 15 or 20 per Cent. Loss, pretending they come charged to them at those Prices, and that they will not lose; so that there is no other Remedy but to take them on their Terms, or remain out of one's Money till they shall think proper to pay, which at soonest will not be till the uncertain Arrival of other Ships, which according to the present miserable Condition of Affairs here, will not be God knows when."

JULY 31. It is said, that the important Post of Lord High Treasurer of England, will soon be revived in the Person of his Royal Highness the Duke of York.

These are the Heads talked of, as settled by the present Confederated great Interests, viz.

Duke of Bedford, Lord President.
Duke of Portland, Lord Chamberlain.
Duke of Marlborough, Master of the Horse.
Marquis of Rockingham, First Lord of the Treasury.
Earls of Hillsborough, Besborough, and Shelburn, Vice-Treasurers of Ireland.
Lord Paulet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.
Lord Halifax, First Lord of Trade.
Lord Egmont, First Lord of the Admiralty.
Mr. Grenville, Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Mr. Townshend, Paymaster.

They write from Leghorn, that the Senate of Genoa has offered the Sum of Two Millions of French Livres, to General Paoli, for re-delivery of Capraia, which was refused.

An eminent Corn-Factor has sent over Commissions for Thirty Thousand Quarters of Corn to be imported, in different Bottoms, from New-York, Maryland, New-England, and Pennsylvania.

It is said Orders have been sent over to Holland and Germany, to postpone the farther engaging Protestant Palatines for the new Settlements in America.

EDINBURGH, July 20. The Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of this City, have offered a Reward of 200 l. Sterling to any Person or Persons, who shall discover the Author or Authors, of certain incendiary Letters, sent some Days ago to the Right Hon. the Lord President of the Court of Sessions, threatning to murder his Lordship, and burn his Houses in Town and Country, for the Judgement given by him in a Cause lately depending before that Court.

BOSTON, September 21.

By our latest Advices from London, which came down to the 8th and 9th of July, we are informed, that the King has established the Admiralty-Office, for the New-England Provinces, and appointed ROBERT ACHMUTY, Esq; Judge, with 300 l. Sterling per Annum, and to have no Fees; JONATHAN SEWALL, Esq; Advocate-General, and Mr. ARODI THAYER, Marshal.

NEW-YORK, September 14.

By Letters from Montreal, we learn, that Three Frenchmen, sent out by Monsieur La Corne, are lately returned there, after 26 Months Journey in the Wilderness, they having been 1500 Miles farther than Mishlamackana, in Search of the North-West Passage; and we hear they have made many useful Discoveries, and that they actually met with a very large River that ebb'd and flow'd.

ANNAPOLIS, OCTOBER 8.

The Sloop POTTS, Capt. COOKE, is arrived from MADEIRA, which Place he left the 21st of August; and informs, that the Brig ELISABETH, Capt. FEARIS, belonging to PHILADELPAIA, was to sail in Four Days after him.

 The Subscriber being anxious to settle, and pay off the Claims against the Estate of her late Husband, which entirely depend on a Collection of the Debts; and they being, in general, small, very numerous, and some of them long due; she must, in Justice to the Creditors, be under the disagreeable Necessity of pursuing every legal Method, for their speedy Recovery; which, she hopes many will prevent, by contriving to settle, and make Payment, the ensuing Provincial Court.

A. C. GREEN.

For the Benefit of our Readers, we here insert a short Account of the Nature of the Distemper so prevalent at this Time among the Horses, both in this, and the neighbouring Provinces, along with a Method of Cure, which generally succeeds.

IT begins with an Inflammation in the Glands of the Throat, which soon fumifies and suppurates, then spreads its Effects to the Head and Eyes; from whence the Matter is discharged through the Nostrils.

To cure which, begin with repeated Bleeding. Give the Horse, Morning and Evening, a Ball of Brimstone and Saltpetre, from Half an Ounce, to an Ounce of each, made up in Paste: Inject sharp Vinegar in his Nostrils, and bathe the Outside of his Throat with Vinegar, Hog's Lard, and Camphire.——N. B. The putting Tar on the Bridle Bits of such Horses as have hitherto escaped the Infection, has proved a good Preservative against it.

On Wednesday, the 4th of NOVEMBER next, at JOPPA, will be expos'd to Sale, and certainly sold, to the highest Bidder, the following Houses and Lots, lying in said Town, belonging to the Estate of DAVID M'CULLOCH, deceased, and sold in Pursuance of his Last Will and Testament, viz.

SCHEME
MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of Maryland have conſtantly and ineffectually hitherto, ſince Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordſhip hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hogſhead on Tobacco exported.

A Conſtitutional Tax on the People to ſupport an Agent of the Appointment of the Lower Houſe, has been greatly defired, frequently attempted, and as often refuſed by the Upper Houſe.

The Lower Houſe of Aſſembly contend, That the Clerk of the Council his reaſonable Reward, as well as every other Expence neceſſarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Fines, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That Stationment being directly oppoſite to the Opinion the Upper "Houſe had, on mature Conſideration; formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occaſioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Diſtreſs of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Neceſſity of Public Creditors, compelled the Lower Houſe to agree to an Appeal to his Majeſty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpoſe, as the only Means to ſettle Diſputes, reſtore Public Credit, and lay a ſure Foundation for the future Eaſe and Good of the Province.

A Subſcription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, has been Open'd, and Subſcriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and ſupporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redreſs of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE alſo of the Lower Houſe, as an additional Means of raiſing Money for the ſame Purpoſes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raiſe One Thouſand Pounds Common Money, is ſubmitted to the Public.
